

The "Use Water As Car Fuel" Challenge

Statement of Expense Reimbursement

I agree that if my 'HHO' device fails to show a fuel economy improvement of 14% or greater after testing via the agreed-upon testing protocol, I shall pay David Rice's reasonable and expected expenses that he will incur to test my device. I agree that "reasonable and expected" includes the expense of gasoline required to test the device itself as well as that which is required to travel to the test site.
